

Invitation

Enhancing educational quality through internationalisation

ErasmusPlus multiplier event @
Glasgow Caledonian University

21 March 2019

10 – 15.30

GCU Campus Glasgow

What is EQUIiP?

EQUIiP is a partnership of seven European universities with experience in delivering continuing professional development (CPD) to teachers and lecturers in international programmes in Higher Education.

Why EQUIiP?

- To have a positive impact on the international experiences of all students at Higher Education Institutions (HEIs).
- To enable HEIs to improve the professional development of their teaching staff in international programmes.
- To create a CPD programme for educational developers, working with lecturers in international programmes.

Why this event?

Sharing the outcomes of EQUIiP and the lessons learned are important elements of the project. The seminar also allows for contextualisation to the various higher education environments.

The EQUIiP CPD modules

- Introduction to teaching and learning in the international classroom.
- Internationalizing course design
- Feedback and reflective processes
- Intercultural group dynamics
- The role of language and language diversity

Who should attend?

Pro Vice Chancellors Academic and International, Associate Deans Learning and Teaching, Senior Academics or Programme leaders, Educational Developers, Internationalisation Leads.
